Your client: Mrs Bernadette Rogers
Re: Estate of Mrs U.L. Wills
Your ref: WC/3885

Dear Mr Couchman,

Mrs Rogers' "final" demand dated 15th July 2020 for £35,000 is noted and is rejected.

Furthermore, I reject Mrs Rogers' initial demand for £150,000, sent on the 27th May, and I reject her revised demand for £135,000, sent on the 2nd June.

Please advise your client to return the £100,000 that she has fraudulently taken from Mrs Wills' estate and to refrain from making further fanciful and ludicrous attempts to extort money from the estate.

Please advise your client to send me all of our mother's valuables, jewellery, paintings and all of her coins as I have previously and repeatedly requested of her so that I can distribute them as per the will. Mrs Rogers' continued withholding of our mother's valuables is obstructing my execution of the will.

As a way forward, once she has complied with the above, your client should arrange a conference call with her siblings so that we can discuss a realistic compensation for our mother's stay at the Rogers' house until her death on the 19th April 2020.

If Mrs Rogers chooses to compare the service she provided for my mother with that of a registered and regulated care home, can she provide copies of the following documents prior to the conference call:

1. The estimate/agreement/contract previously entered into with her siblings regarding the costs of my mother's stay with Mrs Rogers.
2. Her CQC certificates.
3. Her food hygiene ratings.
4. A copy of her indemnity insurance certificates.

Yours sincerely,

Andrew Wills
